SECRETARY OF STATE OFFERS GOOD STANDING CERTIFICATES ONLINE

Baton Rouge, LA – In order to make the Secretary of State’s office more business-friendly, Secretary of State Al Ater announces that good standing certificates may now be purchased online.

“Not only do we especially want to help businesses more easily access information in light of the recent hurricanes, but it is important for our Commercial Division to be as business-friendly as possible for the total good of our state’s economy,” Ater said. “We hope this will help our state’s business community and anyone who does business with Louisiana more efficiently interact with our office.”

Good standing certificates may be purchased online by searching the corporations’ database available on the Secretary of State’s website at www.sos.louisiana.gov. If the entity is in good standing, there will be an automatic link enabling the user to add the certificate to a shopping cart. A link will not appear on the screen if the entity is not currently in good standing. Upon checkout, payment can be made with Mastercard, Visa, American Express or Discover. A $2.00 charge will be added to the total fee.
